BUSINESS PURPOSE

Sustainable Environmental Advocacy and Development, Inc. ("SEAD") is organized exclusively for charitable, educational, and scientific purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding provision of any future federal tax law.

The purpose of SEAD is to advance environmental sustainability and community well-being through environmental advocacy, education, sustainable development, environmental justice, conservation, pollution prevention, environmental-health awareness, research, community engagement, and programs designed to promote healthy, resilient, and sustainable communities.

In furtherance of these purposes, SEAD may develop and support programs involving environmental education and awareness; community environmental initiatives; conservation and restoration; safe water and environmental health; sustainable development; youth environmental leadership; environmental justice; pollution prevention; research and public education; and partnerships with governmental agencies, educational institutions, nonprofit organizations, community organizations, businesses, and other stakeholders.

SEAD may receive grants, charitable contributions, gifts, donations, contracts, and other lawful financial support to further its exempt purposes.

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any director, officer, founder, member, or other private person, except that the Corporation may pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and make payments in furtherance of its exempt purposes.

No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Upon dissolution, the Corporation's assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or to the federal government or a state or local government for a public purpose.
